1. The changes in the leadership in the USSR were received by the Polish leaders with considerable concern, since both N.S. Khrushchev and N.A. Bulganin are known for their highly critical attitude toward Poland.
2. Khrushchev was personally involved in the deportation of Poles from Eastern Poland to Siberia in 1939. This action was a major stimulant to the growing hate of the Polish people toward the Soviets and is considered a grave political mistake and lack of foresight on the part of Khrushchev. 25X1
3. The repeated postponements of the meeting of the Polish Central Committee were caused by the Soviet changes. Changes in the Polish Politburo are now imminent, and it is reported that several Party district secretaries will be promoted to the Politburo. 25X1
